HEIGHTS 1980
ASSUMPTION COLLEGE
WORCESTER,
MASSACHUSETTS

Volume Twenty-two

As we Assumptionists review the College's first seventy-five years, our first thoughts are of admiration for those who preceded us. To have left their native land and taken up on our unevenly hospitable shores the cause of education of the Franco-American ethnic minority of New England was an act of courage. They had neither money nor numbers, only their faith in God and a desire to spread his Kingdom wherever the Church was hurting. Once here, their faith and courage rubbed off on everyone they met, particularly on the students with whom they lived and intermingled in a true family atmosphere.

Assumption College had had considerable influence: in the state and nation where its many graduates serve in all professions and capacities; and in the world where its influence ranges from chapels in Moscow to political circles of Alaska to other far reaching activities of graduates and priests. And its influence on religion has expanded to include not only the church of its Catholic foundations but also leadership in many things ecumenical — study, worship, civil rights support, to name a few.

We rejoice in our foundation and sponsorship by the Augustinians of the Assumption and in the vision of their founder, Father Emmanuel d'Alzon. The motto he proposed has become ours, "Until Christ Be Formed in You."

We humbly ask Almighty God to grant us the grace to be faithful to what we have pledged and for the courage to carry it out, both now and in the years ahead.

There are places I'll remember all my life, though some have changed,
some forever, not for better,
some have gone and some remain.

All these places had their moments,
with lovers and friends I still can recall,
some are dead and some are living,
in my life I've loved them all.
But of all these friends and lovers,
there is no one compared with you,
these memories lose their meaning
when I think of love as something new.

Though I know I'll never lose affection
for people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
in my life I'll love you more.

Though I know I'll never lose affection
for people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them
in my life I'll love you more.
In my life I'll love you more.

Words by Paul McCartney
Selected by his friend, Dave Vilandre

GRADUATION MASS

"Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not kill, commit adultery, steal, bear false witness, or defraud.' " And he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth." And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, FOLLOW ME." — Mark 10:17-22
